

Commercial tenants and owners have quite specific needs. Successful commercial investment therefore demands well-informed decisions made with the assistance of a knowledgeable professional.

Optimising knowledge

Specialist services

Our Commercial Division provides comprehensive real estate services specifically tailored to the commercial market.

It is designed to provide both commercial tenants and property owners with specialised knowledge at every step in the process, from strategic planning and site selection to closing the deal.

It means we are qualified to handle any client requirement, from a portfolio review of existing properties to the rationalisation of current assets to re-zoning and re-development.

A key feature is our attention to detail, personal service and prompt reporting throughout the marketing and sales process.

Optimising trends

Strategic direction

The real strength of our commercial division lies in our appreciation of the specific needs of commercial tenants and owners, spanning everything from environmental to zoning regulations and everything in between.

In addition, we have an intimate knowledge of all facets of the commercial marketplace, allowing us to give valuable strategic advice taking into account current trends and market forces.

The net result is that our clients are able to make informed decisions with all the options put before them.

Our local knowledge is simply priceless.
